Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent Baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

To Owners of Town or Farm Property, in Decatur, Ill.

I am in want of some improved property in the town of Decatur, also one or two improved farms, in the country. I offer in exchange some of my Evanston property, which is choice, and lying between two depots. Evanston is well known as the most popular suburban town on the Chicago, having now a population of about 10,000 and rapidly increasing. Its property, as an investment, is more desirable than Chicago property as taxes are nominal, and increase of values is very rapid. Water works and gas are now in. Owners and agents are invited to correspond with me.

CORRECT SPEAKING.

We advise all young people to acquire the habit of correct speaking and writing, and to abandon as early as possible the use of slang words or phrases. The longer you live, the more difficult the acquirement of correct language will be; and if the golden age of youth, the proper season for the acquisition of language, be passed in abuse, the unfortunate victim, if neglected, is very properly doomed to talk slang for life. Money is unnecessary to procure this education. Every man has it in his power. He has merely to use the language which he reads, instead of the slang which he hears; to form his tastes from the best speakers and poets in the country; to treasure up choice phrases in his memory and habituate himself to their use, avoiding at the same time the pedantic precision and bombast which shows the weakness of vain ambition, rather than the polish of an educated man.

A Mississippi paper says: "Give a negro a spavined mule, a single-barreled pistol, and a brass watch, and you make him supremely happy."

ON a woman with red hair who wrote poetry—Unfortunate woman! how sad is your lot! Your ringlets are red, but your poems are not.

"A fight between the negro boy and a bear, after which a dog will be set upon the bear." All this at Waco, Texas, for the contemptible sum of 50 cents.

MUDDY water can be settled by dropping into it a few common almonds. Water that has been used for washing can also be made clear by throwing into it a little powdered alum.

UTAH is making rapid progress in railways. Iron is arriving, in Salt Lake City for the Utah Southern, and an army of men are at work south of Provo, casting up the grade for the ties and rails.

"Then you wont lend me that dime novel, eh?" inquired one boy of another in the postoffice, Saturday. "No, I wont." "All right then; next time our chimney burns out, you shan't come into the yard and holler."

Dr. Gutteeit recommends rubbing warts, nights and morning, with a moistened piece of of muriate of ammonia. They soften and dwindle away, leaving no such white mark as follows their dispersion with lunar caustic.

AN eccentric old fellow, who lives alongside of a grave yard, was asked if it was not an unpleasant location. "No," said he, "I never jined places in all my life with a set of neighbors that minded their own business so stiddy as they do."

The vagaries and varieties under the Civil Rights law are abundant. Two negroes got drinks at the bar of Willard's hotel in Washington from a white man, and going afterward to a barber-shop, were refused a shave by a man of their own color.

It cost them two dollars to get a blacksmith to pry open a Philadelphia charity box, and when he got in it and emptied out four cents, the charitable ladies who had been engineering that box for a year looked an awful look at each other.

A gentleman in San Joaquin county, Cal., owns a flock of 2,000 ewe sheep, 1,200 of which had 2,400 lambs this season, thus increasing the flock 120 per cent. Nearly all of the sheep produced twins, and twenty of them produced triplets

Machinery has reached a great state of perfection. An exchange remarks: "We recently saw some burned peas put into the hopper of a coffee mill, and in less than two minutes they were occupying a place in a grocery window labeled 'Fine Old Mocha.'

The Heart is a Wonderful Pump, the valves of which open and shut seventy or eighty times per minute. If an alcoholic stimulant be taken into the blood the pump works much faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All the intoxicating nostrums advertised as "tonics," "renovators," "correctives," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and hence all intelligent Christians are thankful that DR. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS—an Invigorant and Alterative without a sting—is everywhere supplanting these proprietary poisons. [mar24-d&w4w

ADAMS HOUSE,

FOOT OF LAKE STREET,

Opposite Union Depot. CHICAGO.

THE ADAMS HOUSE, SO POPULAR before its destruction at the great fire of 1871, has been rebuilt, and is now open to the public. It is newly furnished in a substantial and comfortable manner, but without the ginger-bread ornamentation, which is so expensive in a hotel, and so useless to the comfort of its guests. The table will furnish wholesome food, well cooked; the beds will always be clean, and the proprietors will in all particulars maintain a home-like, comfortable, quiet, orderly and sensible house, at the popular price of $2,00 per day.

We bespeak the patronage of the traveling community, feeling sure that the general character of the house will give entire satisfaction. BLENIS & MURPHY, Props.

TOWNSHIP OFFICERS.

The following from the Bloomington Pantagraph, will apply with equal force to this locality: The spring elections are approaching, and the peo-in the towns will speedily be making their nominations for Supervisors, Assessors, Collectors, &c. Not in the interest of any aspirant or clique, but in that of good government alone, we wish to remind the people of the desirableness of electing to these offices good men, the best who can be selected and induced to serve. The duties of many of these local officers touch more nearly the material interests of every man in the community, than do those of a President, Governor, or Congressman. The Supervisor, beside his powers as a town officer, is a member of the county legislature, and the whole country is interested in having him a man of integrity, of sound common sense and justice, instead of narrow minded, prejudiced and picayunish. The assessor should be a man of integrity and firmness, of good judgment and a good knowledge of the values of property Our local taxes constitute by far the larger part of the burden of taxation of which we all complain, and it largely depends on our local officers whether they are equitably laid, properly collected and wisely disbursed. It is wisdom to look well to the composition of the local tickets.

We must prepare ourselves for the breaking of another idol. Ere long there will be nothing left for us to worship. Persons who have long believed in the beauty of the "Pilgrim's Progress," and the grandeur of the character of John Bunyan, will be surprised to learn that the left hand book of the English Puritan was written by a Dutchman. There is now in the Bodleian library at Oxford a copy of the Dutch book, "Dot Boeck von den Pilgrim. Delf. H. Eckert, Hamborch, 1498, 4to," which was lent to Southey, the poet, for perusal. A previous edition of this book was printed at Haarlem by Jacob Bellaert, in 1486. The books are identical in the main purport and it seems to be probable that Dr. Barlow, the Bishop of Lincoln, who is said to have procured the release of Bunyan from prison, may have shown him a copy of the original work. It was not until after his release that Bunyan wrote the "Pilgrim's Progress." If such was really the case we may as well prepare to shatter all our literary idols in a heap, and begin the world anew.

BUTLER ON CIVIL RIGHTS.

He Declares that the Negro has No Legal Right to Enter a Saloon or Barber-shop.

WASHINGTON, March 17, 1875.

SIR—I have the pleasure to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 14th, containing expressions of appreciation of my efforts in behalf of the civil rights bill, for which pecept my thanks:

"You further ask: "Will you be kind enough to inform me if colored men are entitled to the privileges of saloons and barber-shops under its provisions?"

To this I answer: I understand by "saloons" you mean drinking saloons, and I am happy to say that the civil rights bill does not give any right to a colored man to go into a drinking saloon without the leave of the proprietor and am very glad it does not. I am willing to concede, as a friend to the colored man, that the white race may have at least this one superior privilege to the colored man, that they can drink in bar-rooms and saloons, and I never shall do anything to interfere with the exercise of that high and distinctive privilege.

I would not advocate a bill which should give that right to the colored man. If I were to vote for any bill on this subject at all, it would be one to keep the colored man out of the drinking saloons, and I hope no barkeeper will ever let a colored man have a glass of liquor at any bar open for drinking. Indeed, I would be glad, whenever a colored man should go into a drinking saloon for the purpose of drinking, if somebody would at once take him and put him out, doing as little injury as possible. He could do the colored man no greater kindness.

As to the other branch of your question, in regard to barber shops, let me say that the trade of a barber is like any other trade, to be carried on by the man who is engaged in it at his own will and pleasure, and the civil rights bill has nothing to do, and was intended to have nothing to do, with its exercise. A barber has a right to shave whom he pleases as much as a jeweler has a right to repair a watch for whom he pleases, or a blacksmith to shoe such colored horses as he pleases.

In other words, these are not public employments, but private business, in which the law does not interfere.

From time immemorial all men have had equal rights at the common law in places of public amusement, in public conveyances, and in inns or licensed taverns, because all such business was for the public, under special privileges granted by the government. The theater and like public amusements, were licensed by the public authorities and protected by the police. The public's conveyances used the King's highway. The public inn had the special privilege of a lien or claim upon the baggage or other property of any traveler using it for his keep, and if any man was refused while behaving well, and paying his fare, a seat in any public place of amusement, or carriage by public conveyance, or shelter in a public inn, he had at common law a right of action against the party so refusing.

The civil rights bill only confirms these rights of all citizens to the colored man in consideration of the prejudice against him, and an attempt in certain parts of the country so interfere with the exercise of these common rights, and has enacted a penalty as a means of enforcing the right in his behalf in consideration of his helpless and dependent condition. The civil rights bill has not altered the colored man's right at all from what it was before, by the common law, applicable to nearly every State in the Union. It had only given him a greater power to enforce that right—to meet the exigency of combined effort to deprive colored citizens of it; and all idea that the civil rights bill allows the colored man to force himself into any man's shop, or into any man's private house, or into any eating house or establishment other than those I have named, is an exhibition of ignorance, as well as, in some cases, of insufferable prejudice and malignity.—And while I would sustain any colored man in firmly and properly insisting upon his rights under the civil rights bill, which were his by common law, as they were the right of every citizen, yet I should oppose to the utmost of my power any attempt on the part of a colored man to use the civil rights bill as a pretense to interfere with the private business of private parties. It is beneath the dignity of any colored man so to do, and all acts such as shutting him out from drinking saloons may be well left to the ignorant and vicious men who keep them as a badge of their superiority to the colored.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

BEN. F. BUTLER.

New Store—New Firm, and New Goods.—Messrs. Elliott & Anderson are to open the store, No 6, next door north of J H Lewis & Co.'s china store, on North Water street, on the first of April with a full stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods, together with a full line of hats and caps. Mr. Elliott has for several years been known to our people in connection with the clothing business,—for some time past in the firm of J. L. Fenton & Co., and more recently as book-keeper and salesman in the clothing house of J. P. Smallwood. Mr Anderson is well known to our people, and has had several years' experience in the mercantile business, and of both gentlemen composing the new firm it may be said that they are young men of energy and enterprise, and of unswerving integrity. They will be a valuable acquisition to the mercantile corps of Decatur, and will deserve and doubtless receive a large share of patronage.

SPELLING "MAGNIFIQUE,"

The Most Wonderful on Record.

In vain might you search the annals of history for its history!

The most marked characteristic—that which stamps forever, its immortality is—that it never never came off! And why!

Here are a few plain, pointed unembellished facts; for the truth of which the writer without hesitation becomes most "awfully" responsible.

The captains in this famous campaign were Frank Russel, teacher of the Union, and Virgil A. Pinkley, of Seitz Academy.

Pinkley cast the gauntlet. Russel accepted. The 24th of March was chosen as time of contest. The Union as the battle field. On Saturday, the 19th, the world-renowned pedagogues (henceforth) for good reasons concluded that the Sharon church, situated on the line between the two districts was, by far, a more appropriate place. In harmony with such decision, word was spread from said church that on the night of the 24th, said generals should, at that place, array their forces in mortal combat.

At the appointed time and place—Pinkley with his small band, sailed fearlessly into the "jaws of death," with his 300 (30), erected his fortifications, planted his artillery, and anxiously awaited the enemy's approach. When, Lo! ! and now comes the ghastly fact upon which the whole story hangs —they never came!!

In history we read of instances where, under cover of night an army has "silently stolen away with folded tents," but in this case the army never came within camping distance. Truly it has no parallel. Pinkley having paid for the prize, and taken it to the church, announced that the—might have been—contest would be turned into a civil fray, to take place at his school building the following day. He also stated to the audience the facts herein written. It is my desire to have this published, in order that the thing may have a more free, entire and complete ventilation.

The result of the spelling on Thursday, stands thus—out of ten scholars who contested, three spelled 36 pages, before missing a word. One spelled 40 pages and retired from the conflict crowned victor, having missed not a single word. In this fact, unprejudiced minds may, without difficulty, detect slight reasons why the opposition "vanished into thin air."

The writer has heard since that Russ sell's explanation for the magnanimous wilting—was that his scholars positively refused to go to the church. Perhaps piety in those scholars induced them to "nix come around."

With all due deference,

I am

"MAGNIFICO"

PIMPLES, ERUPTIONS, ROUGH SKIN.

The system being put under the influence of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a few weeks, the skin becomes smooth, clear, soft and velvety, and being illuminated with the glow of perfect health from within, true beauty stands forth in all its glory. The effects of all medicines which operate upon the system through the medium of the blood are necessarily somewhat slow, no matter how good the remedy employed—While one to three bottles clear the skin of pimples, blotches, eruptions, yellow spots, comedones, or "grubs," a dozen may possibly be required to cure some cases where the system is rotten with scrofulous or virulent blood poisons—The cure of all these diseases, however, from the common pimple to the worst scrofula is, with the use of this potent agent, only a matter of time. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

COVERED WITH ERUPTIONS—CURED.

CLAVERACK, Columbia Co., N Y,
DR R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—I am sixty years of age, and have been afflicted with salt rheum in the worst form for a great many years, until, accidentally, I saw one of your books, which described my case exactly. I bought your Golden Medical Discovery and took two bottles and a half, and was entirely cured. From my shoulders to my hands I was entirely covered with eruptions, also on face and body. I was likewise afflicted with rheumatism, so that I walked with great difficulty, and that is entirely cured. May God spare you a long life to remain a blessing to mankind. With untold gratitude, MRS. A. W. WILLIAMS.

The Springfield Circus!

THIS TIME IT'S ALL AMONG THE DEMS.

End of the LeMoyne-Farwell Contest.

MORE ABOUT THE PENNSYLVANIA FLOODS.

SPRINGFIELD, March 26.—The legislative circus opened promptly on time this morning, with a splendid house, the lobby and the galleries being packed with a delighted audience. The performers to-day were star actors, taken from the independent and Democratic ranks, the Republicans keeping their seats and enjoying the performance with the coolest kind of pleasure.

The circus commenced this morning on a report from the Committee on Rules of a resolution suggesting sine die adjournment on April 5.

Messrs. Armstrong, Cummings, and Moore of Adams, opposed the resolution, as virtually ordering a special session.

Mr. Gilbert proposed an amendment to the resolution, naming April 10 as the happy period, which was lost.

Mr. Pease moved to lay the question on the table, which was lost—yeas 58, nays 76. Whereupon Mr. Hammond moved to postpone until next Friday, when Mr. Herrington suggested an amendment naming April 1, all fool's day, as the proper time.

Mr. Condon, of Cook, favored the postponement, because Chicago had come here praying for relief from some of the terrible effects of an abominable bill ("300") under which all collection of taxes had been declared illegal, and the Revenue Committee of the House had done nothing to give them relief. This brought Mr. Cummings to his feet, and he plowed a double furrow through the "Cooks," throwing them right and left. The charge was false; everything possible had been done for Chicago, and they were so constantly fighting among themselves, that it was impossible to determine what they wanted.

Mr. Hise, of Cook, wanted to know what the gentleman (Cummings) referred to.

Mr. Cummings remarked that Mr. Hise was one who had objected every time an attempt was made to get up a revenue bill, in which Chicago was much interested.

This fight among the faithful was much enjoyed by the others, and Farmer Bradwell exclaimed, "Go in boys," evidently as indifferent as the old lady when a spectator to a fight between a bear and the partner of her "buzzom." Cummings did go in and cut a clean furrow through Rogers, of McLean, who also was complaining that Revenue bills could not be attended to when he (Rogers) yesterday opposed a bill calculated to make an honest levy of taxes possible.

Cummings having exhausted his powers in demolishing his adversaries Merritt took up the strain, declaring that this resolution meant an extra session, and it was suggested and supported by men who never expected to come back again and two such were from his district. Johnson, Merritt's colleague, regarding this reference as personal, informed Mr. Merritt that he (Johnson) was at his (Merritt's) service any where, any time and any manner. Chivalry—pistols, shotguns, etc.

Mr. Rogers sailed in to defend himself from the aspersions cast upon him by Mr. Cummings and was glad that the Democrats were at last able to get up a circus on their side. By this time confusion reigned supreme in every corner of the chamber, and so loudly rose the clamor that the Speaker threatened to adjourn the House unless order was restored.

The performance wound up with the previous question, and the subject was postponed until Friday of next week, when the family fight will be renewed.

NEW YORK, Mar. 26.—Victoria Woodhull has written a denial of some of the assertions of colored witnesses in the Beecher trial. She says Tilton never stayed at her house but one night, that was when he wrote the biography. She never took lunch with him at Delmonico's or Kreitzer's.—Never had a conversation with a negro on free love, or talked of making $100,000 by the publication in the presence of any witness, as alleged; and says one of the colored men was discharged.

CHICAGO, March 26.—The Lemoyne Farwell contested election case, which has been in progress for several months was dropped to day. Farwell, the present representative from the Third District who was also declared elected last fall, remaining in office.

PORT JERVIS, March 26—The Erie Railway Company has completed its new bridge across the Delaware river to replace the one destroyed by the flood. Passengers and freight trains are again running over the main line.

An Old Well Caved In.—Yesterday afternoon, about five o'clock, an old well, near the middle of Merchant street in front of Brown's drug store, caved in. The well is about thirty feet deep, and is bricked up from the bottom. It belonged originally to a large boarding-house, which fronted on North Main street, and the ground where the well is was the back yard of the premises. A team passed over the place about five minutes before the top of the well went down The hole is now being filled from the bottom instead of being covered over as heretofore. The property was originally owned by a Mr. Austin, and the house was kept by him as a hotel. It was afterwards occupied by Geo W. Baker, Esq, as a residence, who says he has drawn many a bucket of water from that well The building had several other occupants from time to time, and was last owned by a Mr. Taylor. Finally the building was removed, and when a street was laid out over the premises the well was covered over instead of being filled up as it should have been at the time. This morning workmen were busy at an early hour making solid terra firma by filling up with cinders and earth.

A Dream of Palestine.—Mr C. The holy sepulchre, the place of crucifixion, the river Jordan and Jerusalem are all on the painting and combine to give it more than ordinary interest. Mr. Gruelle is a natural artist and is destined yet to make his mark in the world.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LADIES' LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

ROOMS OF THE ASSOCIATION,
DECATUR, ILL., March 25th, 1875.

On motion, Dr. Wm. A. Barnes was called to the chair, and E. A. Gastman appointed Secretary.

Dr. Barnes presented a report of the annual election, which was held this afternoon. On motion, the report was received and ordered published with the proceedings of this meeting:

At the annual election for officers of the Ladies' Library Association, held pursuant to notice, at their rooms in this city March 25th, 1875, the following persons were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. W. W. DeWolf.
Vice President—Mrs. J. E. Kinney.
Cor. Secretary—Mrs. J. P. Moore.
Rec. Secretary—Miss Ida Burrows.
Treasurer—Mrs. G. M. Bruce.
Directors—Mrs. Theo Hildebrandt, Mrs. Adam Imboden, Miss Laura Allen, Mrs. T. T. Roberts, Miss Sarah Murphy, Miss Ruth Crissey, and Mrs. William E. Crissey.

The committee appointed by the association to suggest names for officers, supposed that their duties ended when the resolution was made, but it has been customary heretofore for the committee to notify persons of their nomination, and if any one declined, the committee to fill the vacancy; it would have been better, also, if the ticket had been published at an earlier date. This was not done, as the committee supposed that the association would do it, and the association expected the committee to attend to it, hence the delay and the disappointments consequent upon it, as it would have given persons an opportunity to decline if they thought proper, As it was, Mrs. Hatch positively declined being a candidate for President, and Miss Libbie Jack for Secretary.

W. A. BARNES, Sec'y.
MRS W. T. WELLS.

The report of the acting president, Mrs. M. K. Hatch, was then read by the Secretary, and, on motion, was received and ordered published.

To the members of the Library Association and its friends:

In the absence of our President I have the honor to make the following brief report of its seventh years' history:

The members of the executive committee have been untiring in their efforts to do everything possible to forward the objects of the Association, yet they know the Library is not doing all it ought, considering the time and labor that have been expended upon it The last year, in particular, has been full of disappointments and perplexities.

During the first part of the year no active measures were taken for the support of the Association, hoping a favorable reply would be received from the city council in answer to petition asking them to levy a tax for a Free Public Library and Reading Room, in accordance with the act of 1873.

We have failed to secure lectures that we most desired, and at the time we desired them, and to make the money we desired on them. Instead of our two last lectures replenishing our treasury we lost seventy-four dollars and thirty-three cents.

The first of August we moved the books and furniture belonging to the Library Association from Merchant street to our new and attractive rooms on Prairie street, fitted them up with new carpet, etc., which was attended with much expense.

The cash receipts from other sources than the sale of tickets have been very small, while that from memberships has been much larger than for a few years past.

There are at present regular members of the Association as follows: 50 life; 45 annual, and 5 complimentary. In addition to these there is a large and varying fractional membership.

The average number of books drawn from the Library has been 175 a month.

The last of October we made an arrangement with the newly-organized Reading Room Society by which our expenses are made much lighter.

In the last year we have added but few volumes to the Library.

For the new officers so soon to assume their respective duties, the committee desire to offer their best wishes.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. M. K. HATCH,
Vice President.

The report of the Treasurer, Mrs A. T. Hill, was read, and, on motion, was received and ordered filed:

On motion, the association adjourned, to meet again on Thursday evening, April 8th, at 7½ o'clock.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF SAMUEL NEWELL.

Firemen and Masons in Attendance—A Crowded House.

A previously announced the funeral services of the late Samuel Newell took place at the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Robert Mackenzie officiating.

About an hour before the time designated for the services at the church, Macon Lodge, of the Masonic fraternity, (of which deceased was a worthy member,) Young America Hook and Ladder Co., to which he also belonged, Rescue Hose Co. No. 1, and Eldorado Hose Co. No. 2, went to the residence of Mr. Richard Newell, father of the deceased, on West North street, where the body was lying, and where it was taken in chargo by the first named association, and conveyed to the church, where the obsequies were to take place. The procession was led by the firemen above named, the Masonic fraternity walking immediately in front of the hearse.

The church was already full when the procession arrived, except seats that had been reserved for mourners and the societies in attendance, and so large was the number gathered to witness the obsequies that many were unable to gain admission.

The services throughout were of a very solemn and impressive character, and the sermon was most interesting and instructive.

At the conclusion of the services the body was taken to Greenwood Cemetery for interment, where it was buried with Masonic honors.

The large concourse of people who followed the remains of this worthy young man to the grave, attested the high esteem in which he was held in the community.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT AND CONDOLENCE.

At a special communication of Macon Lodge No. 8, A. F. & A. M., held March 26th, 1875, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In His wisdom, the great Architect of the universe hath been pleased to permit Death to strike our brother, Samuel Newell; and though fully realizing that words and formalities are feeble expressions of sorrow, and afford but little solace to the bereaved, yet, believing that sincere tributes of respect to the memory of the dead, and recognition of the virtues of the departed, perpetuate for the living the priceless lessons and examples of a good man, it is, therefore,

Resolved, That we acknowledge, in the demise of our late beloved brother, the loss of a good and true man and Mason, who served our craft with fervency and zeal, and with honor to the fraternity; and who has in his life illustrated and typified all the virtues and principles which it is the object of our Order to inculcate and advance.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the relatives of our departed brother in this their irreparable loss, and that we deplore his departure from amongst us; but our consolation is in the conviction that our loss is his gain, feeling assured that he is now singing the new song in the Master's Lodge above.

Resolved, That the Lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the bereaved parents of our late brother, and that they be published in the city papers.

The Truth.—In the whole United States there is not a baking powder or flavoring extract that is valuable, so positive, so effectual in producing the most elegant and healthful bread and biscuits, the most delicious, desirable, and delicate flavored cakes, pastry, ice cream, etc., as Dr. Price's justly celebrated Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoring Extracts, Almond, Lemon, and aromatic flavors. Try them and you will be delighted with their true qualities, and find that they are far superior to anything in their line. [27-1w

A Pleasant Party.—A party of about thirty young people assembled last evening at the residence of Geo. New Styles.—We are in receipt of several new and "nobby" styles of visiting cards, which we are prepared to print for such as may desire them. tf

The Question Answered—"How Linn & Scruggs employ so many salesmen and sell goods cheap." They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the case and package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers.

V. Barber & Co. have recently made large additions to their stock of boots and shoes, and are fully prepared to meet every want of their numerous customers, so far as their line of goods is concerned. A New Agency.—Mr. Edward C Bassey has the agency for the celebrated VICTOR SEWING MACHINE, which is acknowledged to be the best in the market; and also for the "Novelty" Door Plate, which is the cheapest and best in use He also represents the Hamburg line of steamships, which in the matter of safety and dispatch are known to be equal to any that cross the ocean. Mr Bassey has his office at Ehrman's Clothing Store, on East Main street, where samples of machines and door plates may be seen. Prompt attention will be given to all orders in either line of business indicated above.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy, it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence, and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
